Hi Cindy,

I spoke with Mary today about the information Randy has. She wanted to make sure you and Randy were still communicating on a weekly basis and seemed surprised I would call to ask her for whatever Randy has. She asked if there was anything in particular we needed from Randy, to which I told her I didn't know exactly what he has in order to ask for it. I relayed how Randy told you he had over 100K manifests, though. She suggested a conference call this afternoon at 2:30 p.m. with you, Randy, her and me, where Randy can explain exactly what he has and in what formats and how he can get it to us. I realize that's short notice, though, and told her I would also be available all day tomorrow except for a 2 p.m. call.

I also explained the reason behind us wanting this information as quickly as possible since we are getting ready to begin the next phase of things - the RI/FS. She understands it is in the group's interest for us to send Special Notice letters to as many PRPs as we can identify.
